

Our Lord, We Seek Your Company

Lyrics: Jeremy Biggs

Tune: ELLACOMBE

Our Lord, we seek your company to honor you today.
Your blessing, asked in unity, does fill us as we pray.
Oh Lord, we bid you meet us here to celebrate this love,
A love you laid upon two souls from on your throne above.

Our Father now prepare our hearts to witness what will be
A blessed union, as two parts become one perfectly.
We ask you here to lend your ear as we beseech you now
To exercise your holy power and sanctify these vows.

Our God, we thank you for this gift of binding heart to heart!
We praise your name, for you saw fit to join them from the start.
Our prayer is for your gentle hand to rest upon these two,
As they now give each other all except their love for you.
